ENTERTAINING NEW FICTION

THE RUSTLE OF SILK

By COSMO HAMILTON

"The Rustle of Silk" is the best novel of post-war conditions that has yet been written. So many of the characters are recognizable that it will be interesting to see who fits the cap. The heroine is a most extraordinary young woman, and in spite of myself I liked her."—Sir Philip Gibbs.

"I think without the slightest question that this is Cosmo Hamilton's best book. It is really a very fine thing."—Henry Blackman Sell, Editor of Harper's Bazar. Second Printing. $1.90. (April 25)

THE HIDDEN PLACES

By BERTRAND W. SINCLAIR

"Sinclair makes one love the hidden places of the rugged and beautiful section of the Northwest in which his story is laid, and he has given us a book which is filled with the mingled awe and spirit of adventure that enfold the dwellers in the wilderness and which is also a genuine human document."—The New York Times. $1.90

SILVER CROSS

By MARY JOHNSTON

"I know of no book to which 'Silver Cross' can be compared. It is a fine, a splendid thing, and should sweep over the English-speaking world like a tidal wave."—Cosmo Hamilton in the Philadelphia Ledger. Third Printing. $2.00

THE TRAGEDY AT THE BEACH CLUB

By WILLIAM JOHNSTON

"The reader who is adept at solving murder mystery stories will find it difficult to pick the guilty person before the author reveals that person's name."—The New York Times. Second Printing. $1.75

WINNIE O'WYNN AND THE WOLVES

By BERTRAM ATKEY

"Ingeniously contrived, written with much cleverness and keen satire. It will be a very straight-laced person indeed whose sympathies are not with the blue-eyed heroine in her clever manipulation of the members of the 'wolf-pack' who look upon her as easy prey."—The New York Times. $1.75

SHEPHERDS OF THE WILD

By EDISON MARSHALL

"Edison Marshall has combined cleverly his knowledge of animal lore and an ability to write a swash-buckling story with its usual condiments of romance, forest fires and sudden death. . . . plainly written by a man whose heart is in his subject."—The Philadelphia Ledger. $1.75

THE GREAT PRINCE SHAN

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

"The Great Prince Shan' has qualities that are likely to bring it promptly into the ranks of the best sellers and to make it rate close beside 'The Great Impersonation,' commonly conceded to be the best story among the seventy that the master of mystery novels has given the world. . . . It is a fascinating and absorbing tale."—John Clair Minot in The Boston Herald. Fourth Printing. $2.00

THE SETTLING OF THE SAGE

By HAL G. EVARTS

"Every one who likes a western story will enjoy 'The Settling of the Sage.' It deals with the war between cattle owners and squatters at a time when each man was a law unto himself. . . . But there is no swashbuckling, and a refreshing lack of sentimentality."—The New York Times. Third Printing. $1.75

THE RIDER OF GOLDEN BAR

By WILLIAM PATTERSON WHITE

"William Patterson White has never written a poor story, and his 'The Rider of Golden Bar' stands every test that his reputation has builded for him. It is probably his best book."—The Philadelphia Ledger. Third Printing. $1.75

THE WHITE DESERT

By COURTNEY RYLEY COOPER

"The novel is one of action and suspense—a live story, clean as the mountain snows and thrilling with the romance and adventure that make an universal appeal."—John Clair Minot in The Boston Herald. Second Printing. $1.75

KENDALL'S SISTER

By ROBERT SWASEY

In this interesting new novel the author has depicted Boston society, its atmosphere and its temperament, with a sure knowledge and with innumerable and subtle touches. Primarily, however, "Kendall's Sister" is the story of a very real and fine and human woman. Second Printing. $1.90

THE MARRIAGE OF PATRICIA

PEPPERDAY

By GRACE MILLER WHITE

Neither love and marriage, theatrical failure or success, poverty or wealth, could divert Patricia from her one great purpose of clearing her brother's name of a murder charge. $1.90

IF WINTER COMES

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

"If Winter Comes" is the most widely read new novel throughout the English-speaking world today, and it continues to lead the list of best-selling books, as it has for many months past. William Lyon Phelps in The New York Times says: "Seldom can one praise a novel unreservedly; but I have no hesitation in thus praising 'If Winter Comes.' I read it with unmitigated joy." 365th Thousand! $2.00

Pocket Edition, Flexible Leather, $2.50

THE HAPPY WARRIOR

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

"Hutchinson's romance and humor are all his own, and the story is shot through and through with a fleeting romance and humor that is all the more effective because it is so evanescent. Few novels exist in which the characters are as viable as Mr. Hutchinson's."—E. F. Edgett in The Boston Transcript. Fifteenth Printing. $2.00

Pocket Edition, Flexible Leather, $2.50

ONCE ABOARD THE LUGGER—

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

"Anybody who likes 'If Winter Comes,' and many who don't, should read his earlier novel, 'Once Aboard the Lugger—.' It is one of the merriest books ever written."—Heywood Brown in The New York World. Twelfth Printing. $2.00

Pocket Edition, Flexible Leather, $2.50

THE CLEAN HEART

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

The story of a self-centered hero and a jolly old vagabond. "Power and strength and humor and human nature are here."—New York Sun. Seventh Printing. $2.00

Pocket Edition, Flexible Leather, $2.50

THE FOG

By WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY

"This is a real literary achievement if there ever was one in modern fiction. It is a genuine work of inspiration."—The Montreal Star. Third Printing. $2.00

THE WASTED GENERATION

By OWEN JOHNSON

"At most what Dos Passos had to say about the world war was in the nature of destructive criticism. That is why 'The Wasted Generation,' by Owen Johnson stands out in such splendid contrast. For he had something worth while to say constructively; and in this book he said it with a soul-satisfying force and emphasis."—Frederic Taber Cooper in The New York Herald. Fourth Printing. $2.00

NEW BOOKS OF GENERAL INTEREST

THE SUPREME COURT IN UNITED STATES HISTORY

By CHARLES WARREN

Mr. Warren's three volumes set forth the tremendous part played by the Supreme Court in the molding of American institutions, not from the standpoint of the law, but as a living element and a very vital factor in the history of the nation. Three volumes. Illustrated. $18.00 (May 27)

QUANTITY COOKERY: Menu Planning

and Cooking for Large Numbers

By LENORE RICHARDS and NOLA TREAT

The first book to furnish tested recipes and practical help on the planning of menus for cafeterias, restaurants and institutions serving from one hundred to more than six hundred people daily. It is also designed for use as a text book in teaching "large quantity" cooking. $2.00 (April 25)

FISH COOKERY

By EVELENE SPENCER and JOHN N. COBB

This volume offers more than six hundred recipes for the preparation of fish, shellfish, and other aquatic animals, and there are recipes for fish broiled, baked, fried and boiled; for fish stews, chowders, purees, broths and soup stocks. In fact, every thinkable way to serve fish is described. $2.00

INTERNATIONAL LAW: Chiefly as

Interpreted and Applied by the United States

By CHARLES CHENEY HYDE

This treatise presents the American conception of International Law. In 1918 and 1919 the Department of State printed confidentially, for the use of the American delegation at the Peace Conference, at Paris, seven sections of the present work, so that it presents with exactness the attitude of our government in all matters of International Law. Two volumes. $25.00

MEETING YOUR CHILD'S PROBLEMS

By MIRIAM FINN SCOTT

Parents will find this an illuminating book in their handling of their children, and those who are already familiar with the author's previous volume, "How to Know Your Child," will discover in it much that supplements the information contained in that book. $2.00 (April 25)

SPENDING THE FAMILY INCOME

By S. AGNES DONHAM

Mrs. Donham, a recognized authority on household economics, shows how the family income can be divided to cover the six principal items into which the expenses naturally fall, —savings, food, shelter, clothing, operating and developing. With charts, $1.75

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES: Its Sources and Its Application

By THOMAS JAMES NORTON

This much-needed book is the first single volume that briefly but adequately explains for the layman the various clauses of the Constitution. The book will appeal equally to students, teachers and new voters, while lawyers will find it a valuable reference work. $2.00 (May 27)

THE MEXICAN MIND

By WALLACE THOMPSON

"A study by the American people of Mr. Wallace Thompson's excellent work, 'The Mexican Mind,' will greatly facilitate the solution of the grave task which confronts the present administration in dealing with the Mexican problem."—Hon. Henry Lane Wilson, Former American Ambassador to Mexico. $2.50

THE FOUNDATIONS OF PERSONALITY

By ABRAHAM MYERSON, M. D.

"A book of practical value to those who need to understand the traits and motives, the strong and weak points of those with whom they have to deal. It will also help the reader to know and to manage himself."—The New York Sun. $2.25

NEW PLAYS AND BOOKS ON THE DRAMA

A TREASURY OF PLAYS FOR CHILDREN

Edited by MONTROSE J. MOSES

Fourteen plays for children, especially suited for reading or acting, including "Alice in Wonderland," "Punch and Judy," "The Toyman of Nuremberg," "The Forest Ring," "Pinkie and the Fairies," "The Three Wishes," "The Little Princess," "Master Skylark," "The Seven Old Ladies of Lavender Town." Illustrated by Tony Sarg. $3.00

PLAYS FOR SCHOOL AND CAMP

By KATHARINE LORD

Six plays which do not require expensive or elaborate settings, or much time for memorizing and rehearsals, and which should prove a boon to teachers and directors. $1.50 (May 27)

EIGHT COMEDIES FOR LITTLE THEATRES

By PERCIVAL WILDE

This volume contains eight delightful comedies. The main idea in each play is clever and amusing. The author writes excellent dialogue and handles his situations deftly. $1.50 (May 27)

LITTLE THEATER CLASSICS, Vol. IV

By SAMUEL A. ELIOT, Jr.

Contains four plays of widely different kinds—a Muhammadan Passion-Play, an Indian love-tale, a Restoration tragedy, and a Shrovetide farce—which have seldom been brought together, even for purposes of study. Illustrated. $2.00 (May 27)

THE EXEMPLARY THEATRE

By HARLEY GRANVILLE-BARKER

This book is pre-eminently practical, as it deals with such matters as The Theatre as a Civic Institution, The Internal and External Organization of the Repertory Theatre, The Duties of the Director, Choosing the Best Plays, Training the Company, Scenery and Lighting, Audiences. $2.00 (May 27)

THE DETOUR

By OWEN DAVIS

The story of a woman's never-dying aspiration and hope. Clear-cut, dramatic, comedy and pathos interwoven, the play is a clever depiction of mental and spiritual aspiration pitted against purely material ambition. $1.50 (May 27)
